Is Life Worth Living.

If there is an individual on earth who is excusable for thus interrogating himself, it is the unhappy mortal who suffers from maiaria in some one of its diabolical forms. This is no difficult conundrum, however. Life is worth living by any man or woman who enjoys good health, and is not harrassed by a repreachful conscience. The malarial soourge, heavily laid on, is a terrible one for the poor sufferer to endure. A series of freezings, scorchings and sweats—the last leaving one as ilmp and as strengthless as a dish rag, are hard indeed, recurring as they do with fiendish regularity. Hostetter's Siomach Bitters is the world-wide known preventive and curative of this class of maladies, either in the form of ague and fever, billious, remittent, dumb ague and ague cake. Used with persistence they will, rely upon it, eradicate disease from the stem. They also conquer rheumatism, kidney and bladder complaints, nervousness, dyspepsia, liver complaint and constitution, and renew falling strength.

On motion council adjourned for one week.

A New Study of American Fashionable Life

Julien Gorden (Mrs. Van Renssellaer Cruger has used for her last novel a study of New York, Newport and Boston life, which promises to be read with wide interest by all who are interested in American fashionable life. No one knows the society of these three centers of fashion better than Mrs. Cruger. From her girlhood up she has had every opportunity to observe, and we have had no American woman of more brilliant powers, not only of reading the human heart, but of putting her impressions in delightful fashion.

A charming fresh Massachusetts girl is sacrificed in her youth to the ambition of a rich "marriage." Deprived of love, she throws herself into the race for social leadership, and we follow her twenty years, with ever-increasing interest, the career of this able and beautiful woman as she captures outpost after outpost, failing in Boston only to change her base of operations to England, and then attacking the main work of the enemy at New York, and so on to Newport, and finally beholds the capitulation of Boston Itself. The first chapters open in the September Cosmopolitan.

When your stomach begins to trouble you, it needs help. The help it needs, is to digest your food, and, until it gets it, you to digest your food, and, until it gets it, you won't have any peace. Stomach trouble is very distressing, very obstinate, very dangerous. Many of the most dangerous diseases begin with simple indigestion. The reason is that indigestion (not-digestion, not-nour-ishment) weakens the system and allows disease germs to attack it. The antidote is Shaker Digestive Cordial, strengthening, nourishing, curative. It cures indigestion and renews strength and health. It does this by strengthening the stomach, by helping it to digest your food. It nourishes you. Shaker Digestive Cordial is made of pure herbs, plants and wine, is perfectly harmless and will certainly cure all genuine stomach trouble. Sold by Druggists, price 10 cents to $1.00 per bottle.

Important Happenings in the State During Our Own People.

Shepherd, Mich., Aug. 23 .- It now appears that the murder of Elmer E. Struble, cashler of the Farmers' bank, and president of the village, who was shot at 4:30 o'clock Saturday morning, is not such a mystery after all. Friday afternoon he held a conversation over the telephone with J. F. Ryan, owner of the bank, and in that conversation Ryan ordered him to come to Mount Pleasant, the county seat, and bring with him all the books and money in the bank. This he refused to do. but agreed to go there Saturday morning with all the valuable papers. The People's bank in Mount Pleasant failed last week, and it was supposed that the Farmers' bank here was affected. It is supposed by the sheriff that this conversation over the telephone was heard by the persons who committed the

The officers gave out at first that Struble, after being borne unconscious from the bank to his home, had died without making a sign. From a conversation with the sheriff late Saturday night it appears that this statement is not true. Struble died at 11 o'clock, but a few minutes before death he rallied, and in the presence of a notary made an ante-mortem statement. in which he swore that he recognized three of the robbers, and he gave their names to the prosecuting attorney and sheriff, but these officials refuse to divulge this information. The startling feature of the case is, it is reported, that the crime was committed by several de-positors who, fearing the bank was about to fail, followed Struble to the bank, demanded their money, and upon being refused shot the cashler and looted the bank.

Struble told them that he forced the shooting by refusing to give up the money, and in the fight tore the masks from their faces and recognized them. It is supposed they left him believing he would be dead before he could give this information.

Mount Pleasant, Mich., Aug. 24.-The situation at Shepherd is practically unchanged and the impression is gaining ground that the ante-mortem statement of Cashier Struble cannot be used in the enforcement of arrests. The suspension of the People's Savings bank and the subsequent robbery and murder are being discussed in every phase, but nothing new has developed. The pro-prietor of the Farmers' bank at Shepherd spent yesterday trying to solve the question of the amount of the liability and getting the pass books of the depositors. All rumors to the effect that vigilance committees have been formed to lynch the murderers in the event of their capture are erroneous and the law will be allowed to take its
